

IfW Centenary Conference:

“Fair and Sustainable Prosperity in the Global Economy”

June 13 – 14, 2014 in Kiel (Germany)

Preliminary Program

Friday 13th June

09:00 – 09:15 Welcome Dennis Snower

09:15 – 10:30 Plenary Session on Growth & Prosperity

Fabrizio Zilibotti, University of Zurich: “China's great convergence and beyond”

Marc Fleurbaey, Princeton University: “Discounting beyond utilitarianism”

10:45 – 12:15 Parallel Sessions on “Growth & Prosperity”

Session 1:

- Christine Bertram, Institute for the World Economy: “The role of urban green space for human well-being”
- Josef Falkinger, University of Zurich: “Sound financial development under limited knowledge”
- Elisabeth Nindl, Vienna University of Economics and Business: “An empirical assessment of Fairtrade: A perspective for low- and middle income countries?”

Session 2:

- Matthias Bürke, Banque de France: “Civic capital and the vertical integration of service provision: Evidence from Italy”
- Anna Fedyunina, National Research University (St. Petersburg): “Export diversification in the product space and regional growth: Evidence from Russia”
- Wolfgang Lechthaler, Institute for the World Economy: “Trade liberalization and wage inequality: New insights from a dynamic trade model with heterogeneous firms and comparative advantage”

12:15 – 13:00 Lunch

13:00 – 13:30 Poster Session

13:30 – 14:30 Panel – “Growth & Prosperity”

Fabrizio Zilibotti, University of Zurich

Marc Fleurbaey, Princeton University

Josef Falkinger, University of Zurich

Moderator: Matthias Lücke, Kiel Institute for the World Economy

100 YEARS
UNDERSTANDING
AND SHAPING
THE WORLD ECONOMY

Friday 13th June, continued

14:45 – 16:00 Plenary Session “Social Inclusiveness”

Ann Harrison, University of Pennsylvania: “t.b.a.”

16:15 – 17:45 Parallel Sessions on “Social Inclusiveness”

Session 1:

- Fabio Clementi, University of Macerata: “Economic polarization: The dark side of Nigeria”
- Mousumi Das, Indira Gandhi Institute of Development Research (Mumbai): “How inclusive is India’s reform(ed) growth?”
- Katharina Trapp, German Institute of Global and Area Studies: “Differences in the bargaining power of international investors and their impact on developing countries’ labor share”

Session 2:

- Michela Limardi, University of Lille 1: “The outcome of NGOs activism on domestic firms in developing countries”
- Marie-Catherine Riekhof, Kiel University: “Estimating the insurance premium in interlinked credit-output contracts”
- Dennis Snower, Institute for the World Economy: to be announced

Session 3:

- Sebastian Braun, Institute for the World Economy: „Social Mobility across generations “
- Christoph Lakner, World Bank: “Global Income Distribution: From the Fall of the Berlin Wall to the Great Recession”
- Juanita Vasquez, University of Göttingen: “How alternative development spills-over into more honest communities: An experimental approach in Colombia”

18:00 – 19:00 Panel – “Social Inclusiveness”

Impulse “Trends & Patterns of global and national inequality”, Christoph Lakner, Worldbank

Ann Harrison, University of Pennsylvania

Dennis Snower, Institute for the World Economy

Gianluca Grimalda, Institute for the World Economy & University Jaume I of Castellón

Moderator: Sebastian Braun /Toman Mahmoud, Kiel Institute for the World Economy

19:30 Conference Dinner

100 YEARS
UNDERSTANDING
AND SHAPING
THE WORLD ECONOMY

Saturday 14th June

09:00 – 10:15 Plenary Session “Sustainability” with Keynotes

Ottmar Edenhofer, Potsdam Institute for Climate Impact Research: “t.b.a.”

Geoffrey Heal, Columbia University: “Is sustainable growth possible?”

10:30 – 12:00 Parallel Sessions on “sustainability”

Session 1:

- Martin Quaas, Kiel University: “Peak wealth? sustainability and substitutability in a simple solvable growth model with irreversible climate change”
- Gregor Schwerhoff, Potsdam Institute for Climate Impact Research: “Efficiency and equity effects of environmental taxes under capital mobility”

Session 2:

- Ruth Delzeit, Institute for the World Economy: “Potentials of improving food security through closing yield gaps and land use expansion”
- Moritz Drupp, Kiel University: “Limits to substitution between ecosystem services and manufactured goods and intergenerational decision-making”
- Frederik Noack, Kiel University: “Redistribution and development in resource abundant Economies: Theory and evidence from fishing communities in India”

12:00 – 13:00 Lunch

13:00 – 14:00 Panel - “Sustainability”

Ottmar Edenhofer, Potsdam Institute for Climate Impact Research

Geoffrey Heal, Columbia University

Martin Quaas, Kiel University

Moderator: Sonja Peterson, Kiel Institute for the World Economy

14:00 – 14:30 Final words

100 YEARS
UNDERSTANDING
AND SHAPING
THE WORLD ECONOMY